PUBLIC DISCLAIMER

The Health Records Officers' Registration Board of Nigeria (HRORBN) hereby notifies the general public that the following Health Information Management Training Institutions are no longer recognized by the Board:

1. Kwara State University, Malete – Department of Health Information Management and its affiliated programs.
2. University of Ibadan (U.I) Consult – Including all its campuses across the country.
3. Elite International School of Health Technology, Zaria – The institution and all its affiliates.

While some of these institutions may hold accreditation from the National Universities Commission (NUC), the specific Health Information Management programs are no longer acknowledged by HRORBN.

The public is advised that any engagement—whether academic, professional, or business-related—with these institutions regarding Health Information Management is done at their own risk.

For further inquiries or verification, please contact HRORBN.
